

Goulburn Regional Art Gallery

Afternoon Art Club at Home

Public Art

Luke Chiswell
Todd Robinson

Goulburn Regional Art Gallery is supported by the NSW government through Create NSW

About Afternoon Art Club at Home

The Afternoon Art Club at Home has been developed to support all of our art clubbers during the COVID-19 closures. It is prepared by Janet Gordon, Outreach Officer. Gordon has a Bachelor of Teaching (birth to 5yrs) and a Diploma in Children's Services (Centre based care), with 20 years experience in early childhood education. Gordon has several years experience in relief-teaching the afternoon art club at Goulburn Regional Art Gallery.

This Afternoon Art Club at Home explores two public art works.

Luke Chiswell's 'Hold your head up' and Todd Robinson's 'The happening of everything that happens in time'

These two works are sculptures with meaning. To me they are both about having positive thoughts and not worrying.

Luke Chiswell, Hold your head up, 2017

'Hold your head up' is about staying positive and confident. It is about having a head full of dreams.

It is made from bronze.

Todd Robinson, The happening of everything that happens in time, 2019

'The happening of everything that happens in time' is about something that could happen but probably won't.

It is made using Galvanised welded steel, light housing, hardware, automotive paint on fibreglass with steel armature, SLS printed plastic .

Explore Public Art

Make notes and doodles all over the page as you think of answers to questions and to express your thoughts about the images.

This is Luke Chiswell's 'Hold you head up'. A front view, left view and right view.
Have you seen it at Belmore Park ? Have you stopped and had a close look at it ?

Luke Chiswell, Hold your head up, 2017

What is the first word or thought that came to mind when you looked at these images?

What do you think it might feel like to touch?

Explore Public Art

This is Todd Robinson's 'The happening of everything that happens in time'.

Have you seen it on the Wollondilly walking track between Albert and Prince Streets ? Do you like it? Why or Why not?

Todd Robinson, The happening of everything that happens in time, 2019

Use some word art to express your thoughts

Thinking . . .

Express your ideas and thoughts in creative ways by drawing or writing your responses

Think about what being positive means to you?

What are some things at the moment that could happen but probably won't?

What have you heard on the news?

Create . . .

Create an art piece based on positive words

. . . . Find an old magazine or newspaper and cut out some words. Glue them on some paper to make a collage. Add some of your drawings around the words.

Take some time to sketch your ideas and a plan here first

We'd love to see your completed artworks. You can email a photograph to artgallery@goulburn.nsw.gov.au or tag us on Instagram or Facebook